

Government of Pakistan

Pakistan Digital Authority (PDA)

Individual Consultants Required

The Pakistan Digital Authority (PDA) is a statutory body established under the Digital Nation Pakistan Act, 2025, mandated to lead Pakistan's transition towards a digitally empowered nation. As the apex regulatory and implementation authority, PDA is responsible for formulating national digital standards, harmonizing digital initiatives across federal, provincial, and local governments, and executing the National Digital Masterplan to promote a strong Digital Economy, Digital Society, and Digital Governance.

Considering the specialized, strategic, and time-bound requirements of this mandate, PDA intends to engage individual consultants possessing domain-specific expertise and international experience not readily available within the public sector.
